Friendship

There is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.

Proverbs 18:24

Joe Barnett

No birth certificate is issued when a friendship is born. But at that moment, life takes on new meaning: pleasure is expanded, pain is diminished, life is enriched.

True friendship is a pure and satisfying relationship because it isn't contaminated by competing for power, position, or profit.

American philosopher and author Elbert Hubbard said, "A friend is someone who knows all about you and loves you anyway."

We need someone in our life who, when we've done something wrong, reminds us of all the things we've done right; someone who affirms our worth when we feel unworthy.

Be that someone for someone.

See all. Overlook much, Criticize little.

"Continue steadfastly in prayer..." (Col. 4:2).
